THE COMET

Corinne Griffith in "The Marriage Whirl" will be the Comet Theatre's special this Saturday. It is a story dealing with the influence of jazz on the younger generation. It portrays country club life and the night life in New York and Paris in a true and realistic manner. There are many such elaborate scenes and costumes worth for those participating in this review.

Colleen Moore will be seen in "The Desert Flower" on Sunday. It is a picture of the railroad construction camp in which the star appears as the stepdaughter of a rich boss. She lives in a box car. There is plenty of romance in this picture.

Other features for the week include "Shattered Lives," on Monday; "Night Life of New York," on Tuesday; and "Salome of the Tenements," on Wednesday.

Two big attractions will be featured on Thursday and Friday. Mildred Harris and Gladys Brockwell in "Unmarried Wives," a story of a woman's sacrifice on the altar of pleasure. Also "Night Life of New York," featuring Dorothy Gish and Lillian Winston.

PART TWO

RESPONDS TO LABOR HEADS N. L. C. ATTACK

Says Green Offered No Solution To Problem of Negro Laborer, But Knocked The Steps He Has Made For Advancement.

By Lovett Fort Whitman
Organizer, American Negro Labor Council
CHICAGO, August 26.—The statement of Mr. William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, condemning the American Negro Labor Congress in a scathing and eloquent proof of one of the biggest reasons why it is necessary to hold the American Negro Labor Congress.

On the part of trade union leaders who think it is not necessary for the Negro workers to organize, the terrible persecution which they suffer, shows exactly why it is necessary for Negro workers to organize to demand their full and equal rights in the trade unions.

Has No Solution
If it is to be in spite of the opposition of the president of the A. F. of L., it is perfectly clear it is necessary for Negro workers to organize to demand their full and equal rights in the trade unions.

Only a person who has no interest in the Negro industrial workers can say that they do not suffer under special persecution and discrimination in the industries where they work and in the industries where they are not permitted to work, as well as in the trade unions where they belong on an equal basis with their white brothers but where they are either excluded or discriminated against in the majority of cases. Yet in all of this Mr. Green does not offer the slightest suggestion of any other remedy for our troubles nor does he even make the slightest admission of the fact that we have any "social, political, and economic discrimination" to overcome.

Basis of Fight
It is a crying shame that Mr. Green to laud the organizers of the Negro Labor Congress as "men who are not members of trade unions" in the first place, this is not true, as a large proportion of us are members of trade unions. In the second place, exactly the center of our grievances is the fact that the Negro workers are refused the right of admission to many trade unions, and our biggest immediate complaint is our admission to trade unions "on an equal basis with white workers and to bring the millions of Negro workers into the unions."

The fact that the president of the American Federation of Labor, who denounces our plan does not (so far as the quoted denunciation shows) offer one word of encouragement for us to join the unions, although he knows that hundreds of thousands of Negroes are employed in the large industries without organization, and that the fate of the American labor movement as well as the fate of the Negro workers depends upon our being organized does not give promise of the slightest fulfillment of the recently announced plan of Mr. Green's union to grant a better deal to Negro workers.

Supported By Progressives
As for the statement of Mr. Green that the Communists are backing the American Negro Labor Congress, while he, Mr. Green refuses to back it with a statement, only puts Mr. Green in a very unfavorable light in comparison to the Communists. In launching an effort which means life and death to the masses of colored toilers, we appeal to all of the labor movement to help us, regardless of what section or what political views they might hold. If the Communists come forward and say, "Yes, we are ready to support this effort of the downtrodden Negro workers," as we are glad to see they have done, then we heartily thank the Communist; and we can only wish that the entire labor movement would do the same. Our appeal is to every portion of the labor movement, however, and we are receiving a splendid response from all of the progressive elements in it.
